The personal health data we ask you for is solely used for the purpose of assessing your current health status in relation to planning a safe and effective exercise programme for you. The data is confidential and will only be seen by your trainer or other members of the pH.7 training team if and when they conduct a training session/sports therapy session/sports massage session for you.

- You have the right to refuse to give us any information you do not feel comfortable giving and the right to restrict who has access to your records. However, if the pH.7 training team feel that any missing health information could adversely affect the building of a safe health and fitness program for you, they reserve the right to refuse to take you on as a client.
- You have the right to ask us to delete any health data you have given us at any time.
- You have the right to ask us to rectify or update any health data you have given us at any time if your health status changes.
- Your personal health data will be securely stored on site at pH.7 LLP, if at any time your personal health data needs to be transferred to an electronic or cloud-based data storage you will be notified and consent will be re-asked again before any transfer is made.

Do you understand your rights around giving personal health data, the reasons why we ask for it, how we use it, who has access to it, and how we store it? YES: NO:

At pH.7 we like to keep our clients regularly updated about our services, what's going on at the gym, any products we feel would be of interest to our clients, and any health and fitness educational content that we believe would be of interest to our clients.

Do you give your consent for pH.7 to send you marketing emails via MailChimp? YES: NO:

This personal data given is used solely for the purposes stated above and will not be given to or sold on to any third parties. You reserve the right to remove this consent to use your data at any time without a reason. You can do this either by unsubscribing to the marketing emails via the link provided, or by emailing us at info@ph7gym.co.uk
